Mt Takao discount ticket

Media Release – Japan National Tourist Organization – 30 May 2006

If you are looking to experience the great outdoors in metropolitan Tokyo, Mt Takao should be on your 'must visit' list. Located in western Tokyo – 50 minutes by train from Shinjuku - Mt Takao is considered a sacred mountain and has been a centre of mountain worship for more than 1200 years. Over 3 million worshippers visit the mountain every year. Mt Takao is also a well known hiking spot with eight hiking trails, and is one of Tokyo's most popular autumn foliage viewing spots.

The Keio Electric Railway's 'Mt Takao Discount Ticket' is a great way to access Mt Takao. The discount ticket includes a round trip journey to Takaosanguchi station from any station* on the Keio or Inokashira Lines, as well as a round trip or one way journey on either the Mt Takao cable car or lift.

Discount:	Adult tickets:	20% discount on weekdays; 10% discount on weekends and public holidays.
	Child tickets:	10% discount everyday
	(The discounted one way cable car/lift ticket is available only to adults and only on weekdays)

Cost from major stations:	Shinjuku/Shibuya/Kichijoji to Takaosanguchi
	Weekday:	1320 yen
	Weekend & public holiday:	1480 yen
	Child:	760 yen
	(Above prices include round trip on Mt Takao cable car/lift)

Available from:	*All stations on the Keio and Inokashira Lines except Takaosanguchi, Tamasakai and Hashimoto stations.
Validity:	The ticket is valid for two days from date of purchase. The discount ticket cannot be purchased or used Dec 31-Jan 3.

For further information about Mt Takao please visit www.keio.co.jp/english/index.html and click on 'Mt Takao' under the Famous Landmarks heading.

Japan National Tourist Organization – Sydney
www.jnto.go.jp/syd/