

09 August 2010 / Vol. 10-005-V2

1. JAL Extends SYD Overnight Hotel Accommodation to Premium Economy

Japan Airlines will extend an offer of overnight hotel accommodation in Sydney to passengers departing MEL, ADL and CBR using JAL Australia published fares in Premium Economy Class where no same-day connection flight exists.

This offer is the same as that currently offered to Business Class passengers. See below for full details:

Eligible Fares:	Premium Economy* (*Not all fares are eligible. Contact JAL for details)
Eligible Itineraries:	Ex-BNE/MEL/ADL/CBR via SYD to Japan or via Japan to a third country only where a same-day connection does not exist between the domestic QF flight ex-MEL/ADL/CBR and JL772. For tickets sold in Australia only.
Inclusions:	Overnight accommodation and transfers between the hotel and SYD airport
Period of eligibility:	For departures until 02OCT10

2. Revision of SYD Overnight Hotel Accommodation for Business Class

Effective immediately Japan Airlines will no longer include breakfast in SYD/BNE overnight hotel accommodation offered to Business Class passengers travelling ex-MEL/ADL/CBR where no same-day connection flight exists to JL772/762. This change has been made as most passengers have found the airport lounge to be a better option. This arrangement is available for all departures until 31MAR11 where a same-day connection flight does not exist.

For further information please contact Japan Airlines as below:

Telephone	1300-JAL-AUS (1300-525-287)
	Monday-Friday 0900-1800
	Saturdays and NSW Public Holidays 0900-1300